San Nicolas Tourist Information Center Working Hard!

There was a great pushback few months ago when they names the 2 persons taking over the San Nicolas Tourist Information Center close the the post office, however these guys are working magic with the little that they have, not even a computer or a decent chair, these guys have a 50 cent book and a 25 cent pen to take notes. It's clear to see that the building is not top on the priority list however Giovanni & Debbie is making happen, and most importantly correctly informing the tourist and keeping them happy.

The youngsters of the dance group Royal Dream Dancers also gave a performance at the Christmas Fair. Their performance was well dedicated and matched to the rhythm of the songs. Well done, keep it up. You youngsters are a good example of the youth being active in a positive way, and being a good example for the youth of San Nicolas and the rest of the youth of the island. Keep it up.
